

The Cambridge Muslim College Song

Yahya-En-Nasr Parkinson (d.1918)

Old English Melody

♩ = 90

TENOR LEAD

1. Lift I say the flag of Is-lam place it on the hills a-gain Ev-ery glor-ious fold re-vea-ling to the
2. In the thun-der of the con-flict raise the voice and wield the pen We shall plant the flag of Is-lam in the world-wide sons of men You re-mem-ber how your fa-thers on the hill-tops of the world Care-less fields of thought a-again Ev-en as the lord Mu-ham-mad in the Times of Ig-no-rance Touched the BAR. B.

BARITONE BASS

4

T. L.

7

T. L.

of all op-po-si-tion ev-ery spot-less fold un-furled Let us fol-low their ex-am-ple staunch of heart and broke the i-dols of A-ra-bia's pa-gan lance Then all wor-thy sons of Is-lam gird your heart and strong of hand Till the sa-cred light of lear-ning brigh-tens ev-ery Mus-lim land Lift I ar-mour on I say For the mor-ning light is daw-ning he-ral-ding the co-ming day

BAR. B.

10

T. L.

BAR. B.

13

T. L.

say the flag of Is-lam place it on the hills a-gain Ev-ery glor-ious fold re-vea-ling to the world-wide sons of men

BAR. B.